“The DotHouse staff are compassionate and courageous - always willing to go the extra mile for patients, one another, and the community,” says Dr. Vohra on the health center’s dedication to service.

DotHouse President and CEO, Michelle Nadow, believes Dr. Vohra has a strong commitment to the organization and fully understands the health center’s mission-driven work. “She is dedicated to delivering healthcare services through the lens of health equity. Her leadership will help us evolve to meet the challenges and opportunities of the changing health care environment and our patients’ needs,” says Nadow.

In addition to her duties at DotHouse, she has served as Medical Director at MassHealth for almost 3 years. While at MassHealth, Dr. Vohra established herself as a clinical subject matter expert on health care delivery for justice involved individuals and for transgender and gender non-binary individuals. Prior to working at DotHouse, Monica was a primary care provider at a federally qualified health center in Washington, D.C.

“The opportunity to serve, learn, and grow with colleagues that share a mission and are devoted to providing high quality, equitable healthcare, is both humbling and rewarding. I am excited to support DotHouse’s transformational work into the future.” says Dr. Vohra.

Dr. Vohra completed her Bachelor’s degree at Emory University and Medical Degree at Morehouse School of Medicine. She completed her residency in Internal Medicine at Georgetown/Washington Hospital Center, followed by her Master of Public Health from the Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health.
